Something to suit everyone

Situated on picturesque Hindmarsh Island, Karinga Park Homestead is ideally located to provide easy access to a variety of South Australia's unique tourist attractions.

Only minutes to the Hindmarsh Island Marina, you can set sail and explore the inlets of the world renowned Coorong whilst staying at a truly outstanding property.

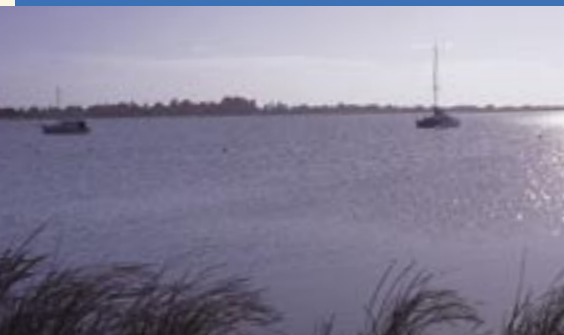

150 years of History

Once a stately residence to a 1000-acre working dairy, this rambling stone homestead has retained its original 19th Century charm.

First rate service, complimented by friendly hospitality

With the warmth of open fireplaces and timber floors, and the grandeur of 15-foot ceilings and luxurious furnishings, Karinga Park Homestead radiates a feeling of relaxed comfort superbly complemented by friendly hospitality and first-rate service.

The Island itself is an outstanding destination for nature lovers. Connected to the old river port of Goolwa, it's the gateway to the distinctive landscape of The Coorong – a spectacular wilderness of world historical and biological significance. A short drive south brings you to the coastal resort town of Victor Harbour where Southern Right Whales, fairy penguins and an abundance of birdlife provide ample opportunity for wildlife watching.

For those who love the finer things in life, the South Coast and Fleurieu Peninsula provide a relaxing opportunity to browse old-world antique and craft markets. Nearby, wine regions of Currency Creek, Langborne Creek and McLaren Vale are a must for connoisseurs, with over 60 wineries scattered through some of South Australia's most beautiful scenery.

Enjoy a stroll through our pine forest or along the water's edge

Beautifully set against a backdrop of century old pepper trees and rolling lawns, the homestead has plenty to offer those who take pleasure from the outdoors.

Relax under the wide return verandah and take in the splendour of the ibis and native parrots, or simply enjoy a stroll through our pine forest or along the river's edge.
